Thank you for your interest!

Our hope is that this initiative will help bring community support and resources to people who are on their journey to get out of poverty. As an Ally, you will befriend someone who is highly motivated to increase their resources and wants to find and maintain full time employment.

Allies help in the areas of budgeting, educational training, friendship and other ways helpful for a person as they move out of poverty.

A Thriving Connections Ally can be anyone with any level of resources who genuinely wants to help and believes everyone has the right to sufficient money, relationships and meaning in their lives to thrive. For more information contact:

SCCAP Thriving Connections
Ally Job Description

The Ally has the following primary goals:
- Build an intentional friendship that is friendly, safe, and supportive with a family in poverty (TC Leader family) and join them in their quest to increase their resources.
- Examine your own hidden rules and how they affect your relationships with people from different economic backgrounds.
- Use the experience of friendship with a family in poverty to advocate within the community for changes in the systems barriers that keep poverty in place.

The Ally commitment:
- Complete poverty training and Ally trainings as offered
- Spend approximately 10 – 15 hours participating in Thriving Connections activities each month
- Commit to be a Thriving Connections Ally for 18 months or longer
- Attend weekly community meetings regularly (at least once a month)
- Meet monthly with your team to build relationships, share information, brainstorm action steps, and document your progress
- Offer additional support throughout the month, as needed
- Periodically provide documentation about your progress to help us evaluate the Thriving Connections model
- Be open to the support and new experiences offered by the Thriving Connections community for your own personal growth.

The Ally receives the following supports:
- Poverty training and Ally Training sessions
- Weekly community meetings in which meals and youth programming are provided
- Collaboration with the others on the team; you are not left in isolation
- On-going support from Thriving Connections Coach and Guiding Coalition
